

I EUROPEAN FORUM ON HOLY WEEK AND EASTER
CELEBRATIONS
Towns - Regions
Lucena (Córdoba), 11-12 September 2018

Tuesday 11th

- Morning

9.30: Reception and accreditation of participants

10.00: Opening of the Forum

10.20: Opening lecture: the Cultural Routes programme of the Council of Europe: 30 years in the service of the construction of European Identity

11.00: Coffee break

11.30: Lecture: Holy Week heritage and its current and potential tourist-cultural uses in Andalusia. The experience of "Ways of Passion"

12.15: Lecture: Holy Week in Sicily (Italy) and its structuring as a cultural resources and tourist product

13.00: Lunch break

- Afternoon

15.00-18.00: Focus Group 01 (coffee break at 17.00)

FG 01 – Art and history of a European heritage to be discovered. Tangible and intangible heritage of rites and traditions in Holy Week and Easter.

Wednesday 12th

- Morning

9.30: Lecture: Religious tourism in Europe beyond pilgrimage routes

10.15: Lecture: Opportunities and challenges of networking. Towards a Cultural and Tourist Route of towns and sites that celebrate Holy Week and Easter in Europe

11.00: Coffee break

11.30: Focus Group 02

FG 02 – Existing tourist products related to Holy Week and Easter heritage. Experiences and potential for collaboration at a European scale

13.30: Conclusions and closure of the forum

14.00: Farewell lunch / Networking

Andalucía

